IMPACT STORY

HUBBALLI, KARNATAKA • ALL-ROUNDER • WITH THE TRUST SINCE 2021

KAVYA RAMAN

The first woman from her district to play at state level

After a spinal injury in college, Kavya Raman barely left home for two years. One video changed that, and now girls message her asking how to start.

TWO QUIET YEARS

Kavya was studying commerce in Hubballi when an accident injured her spine. The months in hospital were hard; the two years at home afterwards were harder.

Friends visited less. She stopped going to family functions because every outing needed planning and help.

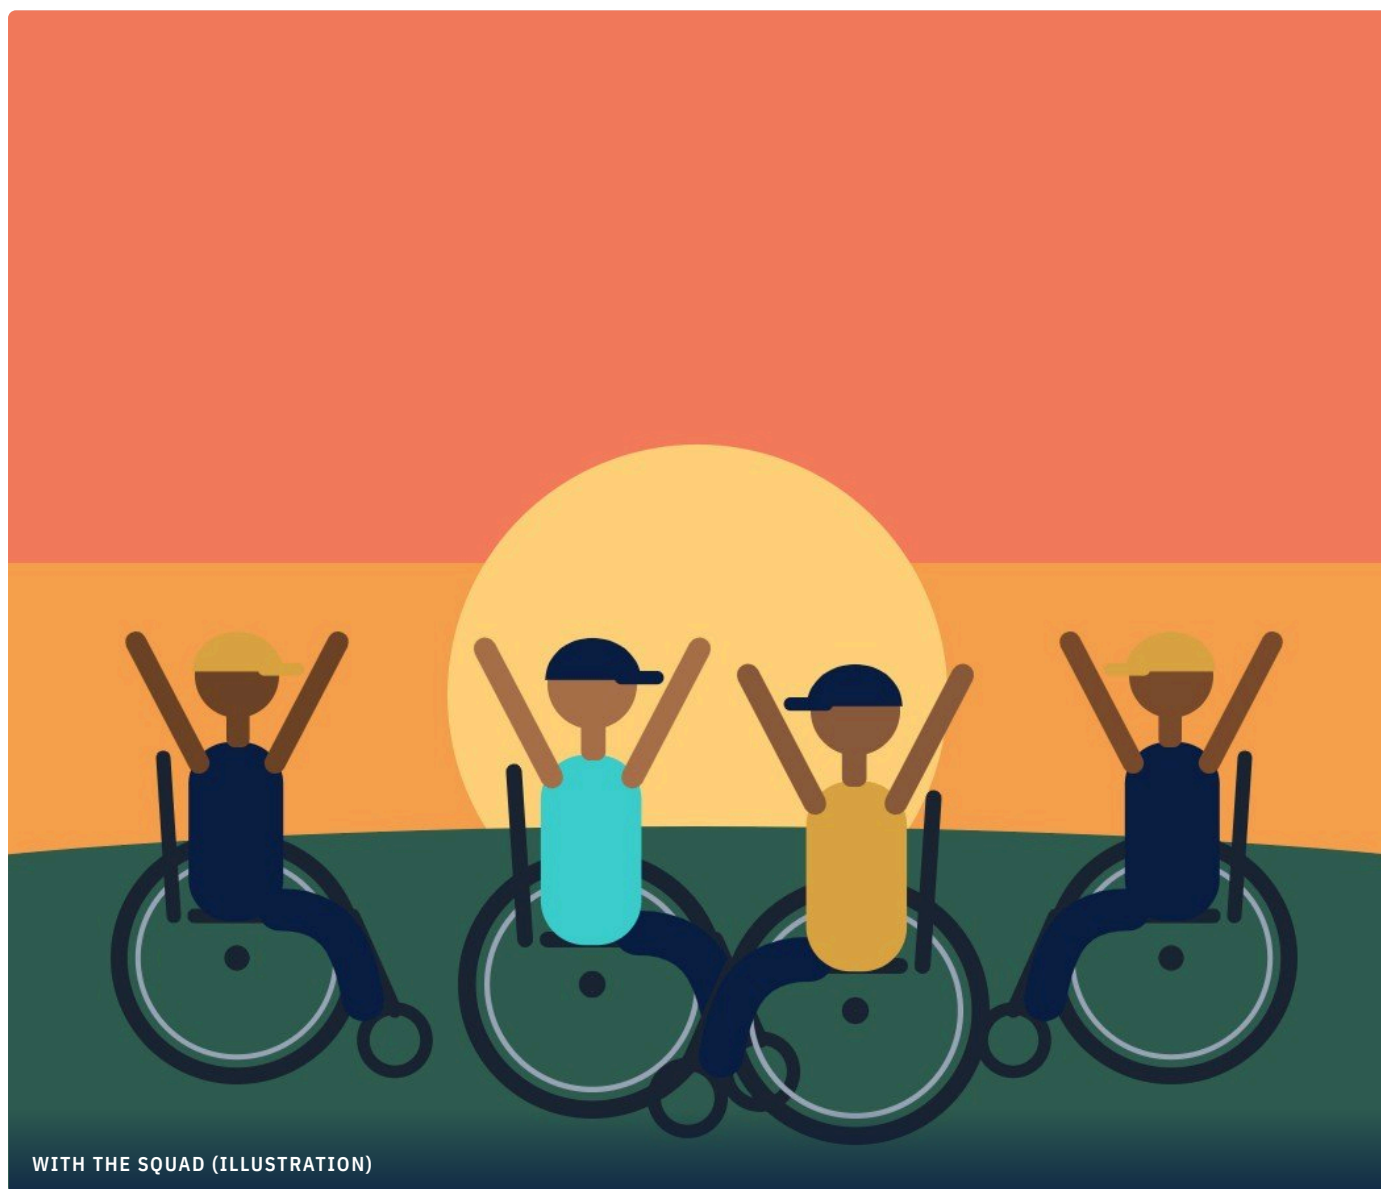

I watched that video four times and messaged the same night.

— KAVYA

ONE VIDEO, ONE MESSAGE

Her cousin showed her a video of women playing wheelchair cricket. Kavya watched it four times and messaged the trust the same night.

Within a month she was at her first camp, nervous and sure she would be the weakest player there.

HOW DEMO TRUST STOOD WITH KAVYA

The trust found her a chair, a kit and a fitness coach who started with ten minutes a day.

WHAT THE TRUST PROVIDED

- ✓ Kit and a fitted sports wheelchair
- ✓ Coaching at every camp
- ✓ A fitness programme built for her
- ✓ Travel for state trials

CHAPTER 3 • ON THE FIELD

BAT, BALL AND BELIEF

Kavya bowls tidy medium pace and bats in the middle order. At the state trials she took two wickets in her first match and was picked for the squad.

She is the first woman from her district to play at state level.
